Profile

A creative and detail-oriented visual designer and illustrator with a flair for crafting compelling visuals across branding, advertising, illustration, and UI design. I thrive on exploration and embrace diverse creative approaches, guided by a strong foundation in research. Beyond my design work, I have a growing interest in emerging technologies like AI, which inspires my curiosity and continuous learning. Proficient in Adobe Creative Suite, Figma, and Procreate, I bring fresh ideas and adaptability to every project.
